

Tilia cordata Littleleaf Linden

BOTANICAL NAME
PRONUNCIATION
COMMON NAME
TYPICAL HEIGHT
TYPICAL SPREAD
NATIVE HABITAT
DESCRIPTION

Tilia cordata
til'i-à kôr-dā'tà
Littleleaf Linden
60-70'
30-40'
Europe

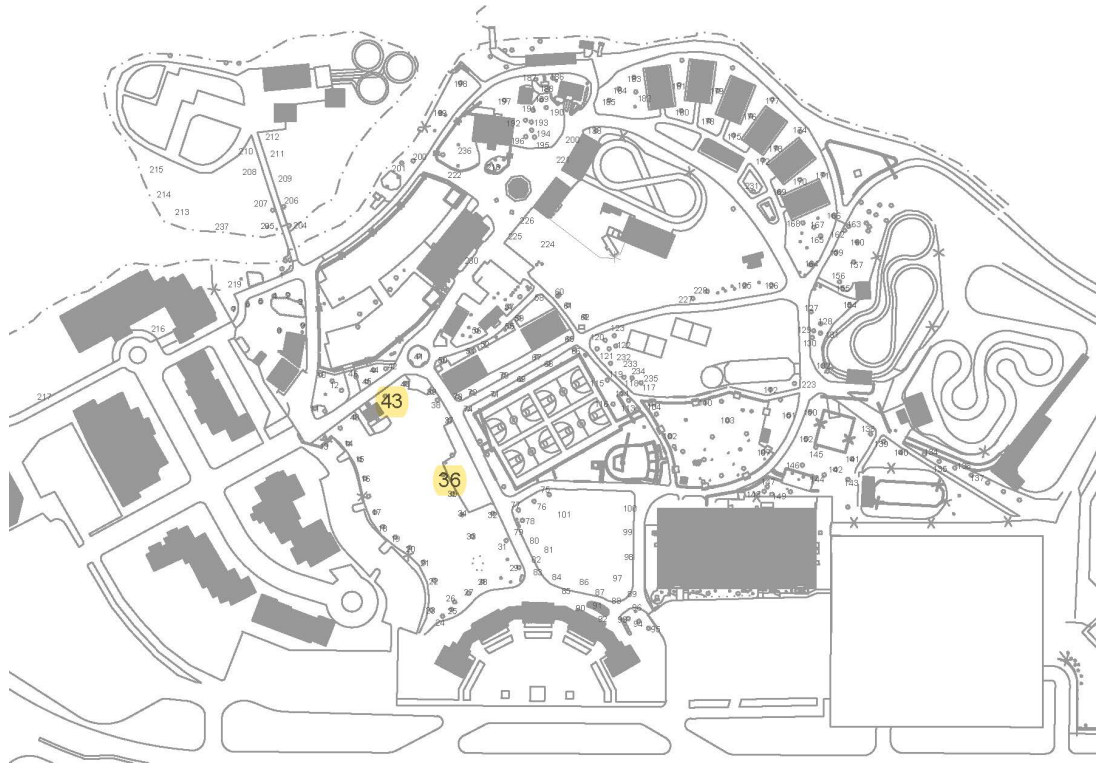

The Littleleaf Linden is a medium to large deciduous tree that provides deep shade. The habit is pyramidal when young, becoming more rounded with age. Leaves are dark green, heart-shaped, with fine teeth. Fall color is yellow-green. Small, yellow flowers in early Summer are highly fragrant. Fruit is a small nutlet with an attached wing.

FAMILY
Tiliaceae

GENUS
Tilia

SPECIES
cordata

TREE LOCATIONS
36, 43

Summer Photo

Winter Photo

Leaf Example

Bark Example

